

Marlborough and District Show 2018

Junior Handling

6-11 years (3 entries – 1 absent)

1st – Christopher Wickers

Christopher handled a Siberian Husky with great precision, all lines kept straight and lead nicely kept away. He was very well presented and handled his dog calmly and lovely. Overall a fantastic performance. Well-deserved best junior handler.

2nd – Imogen Thurlow

Imogen was really encouraging and positive with her Tibetan Terrier. A promising handler, a few points to neaten up on that will come with experience. Well done.

12—16 year (1 entry – 1 absent)

17-30 years (2 entries – 1 absent)

1st – Olivia was very well presented, great with her dog, everything completed to a high standard, straight and precise lines every time moved. She always shad the dog stacked square. Overall outstanding performance. Very well deserved best adult handler.

31-50 years (3 entries)

1st Becky Collier

Becky was very well presented, neat lines and lead and very good overall performance.

2nd Nicola Westgate

Very well presented, really nice performance, close between 1st and 2nd, she presented her dog off the line at the end of moving.

51 + years (6 entries)

1st Suzanne Grant

Really nice performance, straight lines completed well, square every time asked to stack her dog and nicely presented.

2nd Patricia Scipio

Neat performance, nicely worked patterns and lines, close between 1st and 2nd, she presented her dog off the line at the end of moving, just losing out on 1st.
